

Synalloy Urges Shareholders to Discard any Proxy Materials from Privet Fund/UPG Enterprises

April 6, 2020

Synalloy Shareholders Reminded to Look for the Company's BLUE Proxy Card for the 2020 Annual Meeting of Shareholders

RICHMOND, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Apr. 6, 2020-- The Board of Directors ("the Board") of Synalloy Corporation (NASDAQ: SYNL) ("Synalloy" or the "Company") today reminded shareholders to take no action in response to Privet Fund Management LLC ("Privet") and UPG Enterprises, LLC ("UPG"), and to discard any proxy material that Privet and UPG may provide for the 2020 Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the "Annual Meeting").

Shareholders should NOT sign, return or vote any white proxy card sent to you by Privet, UPG and any of their respective affiliates, even as a "protest vote" as only your latest dated proxy card will count at the annual meeting. The Board urges you to DISCARD all white proxy cards and materials sent to you by Privet and UPG.

The Company will soon be sending shareholders definitive proxy materials and a BLUE proxy card with respect to the Annual Meeting. We strongly urge you to wait for and read the Company's proxy materials in connection with the Annual Meeting and BLUE proxy card before you cast your vote. We look forward to sharing with you in the coming weeks our views about Synalloy's business as well as in opposition to the Privet's and UPG's nominees and proposals, including:

- Your Board has committed to exploring strategic alternatives with a focus on providing liquidity to shareholders, including through a sale of all or parts of the Company, as soon as the markets stabilize from the current global economic and health crisis
- In the meantime, your Board and management team remain focused on maximizing shareholder value through strategy execution and business stabilization as we navigate economic headwinds and the COVID-19 pandemic
- After multiple unsuccessful attempts to acquire the Company, Privet has been plotting with UPG to gain control of the Board and business of Synalloy without paying shareholders a control premium
- Synalloy's Board has made numerous attempts over several years to constructively engage with Privet about the Company's Board and business. Privet has recently ignored all recent collaborative efforts by the Board to reach a constructive resolution.

The Board urges you to wait for and carefully consider the information contained in the Company's proxy materials and the BLUE proxy card prior to casting your vote in connection with the Annual Meeting.

- DO NOT return the white proxy card sent to you by Privet and UPG
- DO NOT vote by responding to the email solicitations sent to you by Privet and UPG
